ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION
(Bye-Laws)

OF

NATIONAL GARIFUNA COUNCIL

PART 1
GENERAL

ARTICLE 1
Number of Members

Section 1. The Council, for the purpose of registration, is declared to consist of 100 members.

Section 2. The Directors herein after mentioned may, whenever the business of the Council requires it, register an increase of members.

ARTICLE 2
Register of Members

Section 1. The Council shall keep a register of its members, wherein shall be entered the following:

- a. the name, address, and occupation of each member;*
- b. the date at which each person becomes a member;*
- c. the date at which a member ceases to be one.*

ARTICLE 3
Membership & Annual Subscription (Dues)

Section 1. Any person, who has reached the age of 15 years may become a member on paying an entrance fee and first subscription. The entrance fee shall be such sum as the Directors may from time to time determine.

Section 2. The annual subscription shall be determined from time to time by the Directors and in so doing, special provision may be made for honorary members. All annual subscriptions or dues (except the first subscription of a new member as provided by Section 1 of this article) shall be payable on the last day of February in each year.

Section 3. There shall be provision for honorary membership. An honorary member shall be one, who is no longer gainfully employed, or does not have a regular source of income to meet the stipulated annual subscription or dues. A branch may either exempt an honorary member from paying the annual subscription or dues or allow such member to pay a fraction only of the stipulated dues.

ARTICLE 4
The Annual Convention

Section 1. An annual convention shall be held once in every year, at such time

(not being more than fifteen months, after the holding of the last preceding one) and place as may be prescribed by the Council in annual convention or, in default, at such time in the month following that in which the anniversary of the Council's incorporation occurs, and at such place as the directors shall appoint. In default of a convention being so held, one shall be held in the month next following, and may be convened by any 25 members in the same manner or as nearly as possible as that in which conventions are to be convened, by the Directors.

Section 2. The above mentioned convention shall be called ordinary; all others shall be called extraordinary.

Section 3. Twenty-five members shall be able to sign a requisition, requesting an extraordinary convention. Such requisition must have the items to be discussed at such a convention and must be deposited with the Secretary; only the items listed on the requisition shall be discussed at such an extraordinary convention.

Section 4. On receipt of the requisition, the Directors shall forthwith convene a convention and if they fail to do so within 21 days, from the date of the requisition being so deposited with the secretary, the requisitionists or any other Twenty-five Members may themselves convene a convention. If necessary, they may elect from among themselves a Chairman and a Secretary.

Section 5. Any member desirous of moving any resolution at the convention shall give notice thereof in writing to the Secretary not less than four weeks before the date of the convention.

Section 6. The Directors shall have the power to call an extraordinary convention.

Section 7. At least six week days notice, specifying the place, the day, and the time of the convention and the agenda shall be given to each member; the non-receipt of such a notice by any member shall not invalidate the proceedings at any convention.

ARTICLE 5

Proceedings at Convention

Section 1. Twenty-five members shall constitute a quorum, for a convention but 1/2 of the existing branches must be represented.

Section 2. If there is no quorum at a convention convened on the request of the members, it shall be dissolved; in any other case, it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the following week, at the same time and place, and if at such adjourned meeting, a quorum is not present, it shall be adjourned without a date set.

Section 3. The President of the Board of Directors and failing him the Vice President shall be the chairman of any convention.

Section 4. At all conventions, the President of the Board of Directors, and in his absence the Vice President of the Board of Directors, and in the absence of both the President and the Vice-President, a member selected by the convention shall take the chair.

Section 5. At any convention, unless a poll is demanded by at least three members, a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has been carried and an entry to that effect in the minutes, shall be conclusive evidence of the fact, without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.

Section 6. If a poll is demanded in the manner described in section 5 above, the same shall be taken in such manner as the chairman directs, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting, at which the poll was demanded.

ARTICLE 6
Business of the Convention

Section 1. Among the business of an ordinary convention shall be:

- a. To receive and adopt the report of the Directors*
- b. To receive and adopt the audited financial reports*

ARTICLE 7
Audit & Finance

Section 1. Auditors shall be appointed and their duties regulated in accordance with sections 111 and 112 of the Companies Act, and for this purpose the said sections shall have effect as if the word "members" was substituted for "shareholders".

Section 2. Each branch shall pay annual dues to the National Headquarters. The amount shall be fixed and levied by the Board of Directors after taking into consideration the membership and resources of the respective community.

Section 3. The annual dues may be paid in not more than three installments and shall be payable in full not later than 28 February of each year.

Section 4. The income and properties of the Council shall be applied solely towards the promotion of the objectives of the Council. No portion of such income or property shall be paid or transferred by way of profit to any member of the Council, provided that consideration by the Council may be given for the payment of remuneration to any officer, member, employee or agent of the Council or the reimbursement of reasonable expenses incurred.

Section 5. All funds of the Council shall be deposited in a bank approved by the Directors or Branch Officers. The bank accounts shall be operated by the signatures of the treasurer or any two of the officers from among the President, Secretary and Treasurer. The latter being a must signatory.

Section 6. The National Headquarters may from time to time request contributions from the branches for special projects.
